

BEECH 1900D

The Beech 1900D provides passengers with a comfortable stand up cabin and airline style seating including recline, armrests, tray tables and under seat storage. The Beech 1900D is the perfect golf or ski trip aircraft and has an air-conditioned cabin along with a refreshment station for your enjoyment.

The single aisle layout provides each passenger with the luxury of both a window and an aisle seat. For maximum versatility the 1900D has a movable bulkhead that allows for different passenger / cargo combinations.
